

February 2012

Dear Parents,

You should have received your 2012-13 registration packets on January 12th. They were sent out via email this year unless you request a hard copy be sent home. Forms were due back in the school office by January 27th. If you have not returned your enrollment forms, please do so soon to ensure your placement for the upcoming school year. We are currently in the process of enrolling interested parishioners and will open enrollment to the general public in mid February.

Catholic School Week is January 29th-February 4th. It will be a week of special activities. Please send in two boxes of spaghetti – one for Catholic Charities and one for Blessed Trinity Parish Food Pantry – to be distributed to families in need of food assistance. You should have received a separate flyer detailing the special dress attire for each day of Catholic Schools Week. Friday, Feb. 4th is an early dismissal day.

Following Mass on Wednesday, February 1st, Blessed Trinity School will have an induction ceremony for the new members of our National Junior Honor Society. 7th and 8th grade students are invited to be a member of NJHS after examination of their academic record, dedication to service, demonstration of leadership, and overall character.

Boys and Girls softball tryouts will begin February 7th. If your child is interested in participating, please make sure they have a current Diocese of St. Augustine sports physical on file in the school office. Parents should complete the permission slip that was sent home so your child may be released for tryout/practice.

The Pennies for Pasta challenge will begin February 7th and ends February 24th. Students are encouraged to contribute to the class collection for the Lymphoma and Leukemia Society. The class that collects the most money will win a Pasta luncheon from Olive Garden. Please consider donating your pennies (quarter, dimes, and nickels) to this worthy cause.

Level I Modern Woodsmen Speech contest for the top three winners of 6th, 7th and 8th grade class will be held on February 16th at 1:30 in the school cafeteria. Winners from the Level I will compete in the Level II competition on February 23rd at Blessed Trinity's Parish Hall. Parents are welcome to attend the competitions.

Dates to remember for students and parents of students preparing to receive the sacraments of First Eucharist and Confirmation:

February 7th – Parent Confirmation meeting
February 25th – Student Confirmation Retreat
February 21st - Parent First Communion meeting
March 10th – First Communion Retreat

The Lenten Season begins on Ash Wednesday, February 22nd. We invite you to attend 8:20am Mass.
